I think domestic violence is a serious problem, and nowadays is getting more and more common, but people don't care about it as much as ^{they} should. So in my opinion people should take more seriously this kind of violence, and they should try to protect who is suffering from it.

I know about a man who beat women his entire life and never was punished!

In Spain, 25% of victims of gender violence are not women

I think that domestic violence is very bad and we have to solve the problem but it's very hard because it happens a lot in the world, and some reasons are because some people are sick of love or other people have just mental problems. we have to respect everyone ☺.

There was this new about a boy, he was a very indisciplined kid and a bully at school, a consequence of the violence present in his home, the father towards the mother, and one day he stayed all day close to the body of his mother who was layed on the floor, dead.
There was a very complicated process then but in the end, after ~~many~~ years, ^{he's (noticing the journey,} _{that is life, happily.}

One time I saw a woman yelling and insulting, I ~~think~~ think, her child, In my opinion that will cause a bad ~~experience~~ actions of the child in the future

There was a case last year, 2018, when a woman ^{was} stabbed ~~by~~ by her partner in front of the daughter.

~~Having~~ I've never experienced any case of domestic abuse, but I think that since I participated in the Human Library I became more aware about real stories related to the issue, and even though I already cared about the issue, but I guess listening to real stories made me ~~can understand~~ ~~overwhelmed~~. Overwhelmed.

I once denounced a neighbour. He wasn't arrested but got divorced and I never saw his wife again.

Domestic violence affects not just the victims but also the people around them. In Portugal many women's ~~die~~ die because of this problem, and it's not fair! ♀ we need to do something about this...

My mum's friend was a victim of domestic violence. I've never realised that, even when it lasted for a long time, until my mum told me, that she've got divorced and save herself and her adult son. I still feel quite bad about that, because her son ^{is} ~~was~~ just 1 year older than me.

In Spain, Tenerife, one man buried his wife inside a car.

In the human library we were told about a case of a woman in her 80's that was living with her disturbed son, and he wouldn't feed her, give her water, and when the police discovered that, she was nearly dying. How can a son do something like this to his mother?

12th March 2019 Esmé Bianco actress of the Throne of Swords confessed to having suffered domestic abuse by her husband. She posted a photo of her back: he whipped her and locked her in the room with little food and water. She said: "I'M A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SURVIVOR!"

Sometimes I hear my neighbours yelling, but we never thought anything of it. It is ordinary to think that domestic abuse in our minds is "normal".

Domestic violence is a huge problem in our society and we all should try to find a solution and help the people in danger.

Just saying some things that I've heard to help women survivors and people know about that they aren't alone. It's terrible!

Domestic violence in Italy unfortunately is present, quite everyday there one or two cases to child, women mostly, and men.

Domestic violence is a big problem. There are many cases we know about but scary is that there are a lot of cases we don't know about. And it happens. How can we fix it?

I think that violence of Genets is very bad because you can't kill. Women brains break up with you.

Domestic violence is something that happens you say mental injuries are often committed and can be not treated.

we should fight against it together.

In case of domestic violence where a woman/man is a victim of a very rare violence, more cases it happens more than once because the victim sometimes thinks that is her fault, and this can be change.

It is not possible these kind of violence is really scary and he/she wants to feel different powerful.

at just the around them. die because ir! about this... ♀

On the 15th of January, a drunken man seriously injured his companion. He pulled her on her hair. The man got 60 days in prison. HUNGARY

In 2018, in Italy, there were about 49000 women who were victims of domestic violence. And 42000 are the children who have suffered this violence. I think that in Italy penalties are not enough for this kind of crime.

In Hungary, men are the abusers in most cases. They use violence. However, women are often jealous of their partners and they terrify their partners at home.

Domestic violence is really disgusting problem of society and there should be more strict punishments and laws that become stronger. I don't know how to solve this problem, but I think it's possible to solve it. I'm a student and I'm a student.

I don't know if the approach is a good one. Domestic violence is a crime and it should be punished.

about a case of with her feel her, give her that, she was something like

What is the biggest problem? There is a huge number of cases we know about. But there is much more big number of cases we don't know about. What happens in family/relationship, stays in there.

One of my friend used domestic violence at home. His mother was always sad and he couldn't understand why one day he realized that his father was doing psychological violence on his mother. He help her to divorce from him but it was really difficult for him.
